THE SHOW

Five musicians. One fantasy world.

A 90-minute show performed by five female musicians, combining a fantasy imagery and a sound that bridges Celtic tradition, classical instruments, and electronic music.

Green Clouds are an all-female band formed in 2007 and based in Rome. Their show combines music, visual identity, and fantasy imagery: stage costumes and mysterious masks accompany a performance designed to create a recognizable and highly evocative experience.
Oboe and violin meet drums, electric bass, keyboards, and electronics. This is KELTRONIC: a blend of Celtic and classical sounds with the energy of contemporary electronic music.
